AMUSEMENTS

Theatitorium.
That great public of theatregoers who find their best amusement in moving pictures, who love to applaud the woes and emotions of the hero and heroine, rejoice with them and sorrow with them in their trials, will find in "Naked Hearts" the Bluebird photoplay to be exhibited at the Theatitorium Thursday a melodrama just exactly to their liking.
Tennyson's beautiful poem, "Maud" has been made the basis of the story. If you have read and wondered at the mystifying ideas of the immortal bard, there will be added interest in following the camera-acted version of the poetic story of a great love. The tale has been translated to the old south, before and during the war, and is made into reflection of devious emotions and equipped with gripping incidents galore.
Rupert Julian wrote the story and directed the Bluebird players in its screen preparations, playing, as well, the star part of Maud's adorer. Olga Printzlau has made a scenario of smooth progress, depicting in logical sequence the story of a lasting love, thwarted by fate and stilled only with the final summons.
There is a pretty idea carried out in the early acts of the drama when three clever children—Zoe Bech, Gordon Griffith and George Hupp—introduce, in their childish personalities, the characters who afterward, as grown-ups, carry the details of the narrative to its ultimate conclusion. Little Miss Bech is the juvenile Maud who later is impersonated with delightful charm and intense dramatic fervor by Francelia Billington.
Gordon Griffith is the boy, who later grown to manhood, is interpreted by Rupert Julian, and George Hupp is the brother of Maud's childhood who goes on through the picture impersonated by Jack Holt. Other players in Mr. Julian's support are Nan-nie Wright, Paul Weigle and Ben Horning, forming a company of great efficiency.

Palace.

Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, will be seen at the Palace Tuesday in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "Alien Souls," a thrilling photodrama written especially for him by Hector Turnbull, author of "The Cheat," in which play Hayakawa established himself as one of the most distinguished actors of the day.
For the past two years, after having starred with a number of motion picture companies, Mr. Hayakawa has been under contract with the Lacky organization and has appeared in the productions, "The Clue," "The Secret Sin" and "The Cheat." His popularly has become so great that in response to public demands he will be starred at the head of a company of his own.

In "Alien Souls" Hayakawa is seen as a wealthy dealer in Japanese curios and is deeply in love with a young Japanese girl to whom he was betrothed when a child of three and for whom he is supplying an education at a leading American school for girls.
How this beautiful young Japanese girl falls into the clutches of a money mad young American—how she is finally brought to realize that the east and west can never meet, is graphically shown in a number of thrilling and unusual scenes.
Hayakawa is supported by Tsuru Aoki, beautiful and clever niece of the famous Japanese Bernhardt, Madame Yucco and surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence, including such prominent artists as Earl Foxe, Grace Benham, Florence Smythe, Robert Grey, Isabelle Malone and others.
The production was made for the Lacky company under the direction of Frank Reicher and is considered one of the most lavish and beautiful of the many splendid productions by that company.
The photography is of a little more than the usual Lacky excellence, and according to reports, "Alien Souls" will create a sensation when presented here.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received at our office at Ardmore, Okla., until 5 o'clock p. m. Thursday, the 6th day of July, 1916, for the erection and completion of a two-story and basement, brick, stone and concrete warehouse building 93x129 feet.
